It's unanimous: Canada's low-income families will keep the full Canada Child Benefit (CCB)!

Campaign 2000 welcomes the new CCB – a once-in-a-generation social policy to reduce child poverty.

All provinces and territories responded to our collective call for no clawbacks! They will support full CCB for families receiving income assistance.

For more than a year, our national network has called for the CCB to benefit Canada's lowest-income families – those on social assistance. We called on all provinces and territories to support the full CCB and not claw back from families receiving income assistance.
